

TEXAS AVIATION HALL OF FAME NOMINATION FORM

Thank you for submitting a nomination for the Texas Aviation Hall of Fame. It is important that you provide as much information as possible about your nominee – this will assist in the selection committee's review. Please note that there are many factors that go into the selection of inductees, and that nominees may not necessarily be inducted on their first year of eligibility. However, their name and material gathered on them will remain in consideration for up to two years. A Note: the information submitted is what will be used to consider the nominee. Thorough information is encouraged.

Incomplete nomination forms could impact a nominee's consideration.

Criteria for nominees to the Texas Aviation Hall of Fame include but are not limited to the following:

1. Be a native or resident of the State of Texas or who is strongly identified with the State of Texas, who has made historic contributions to aviation and spaceflight or the aviation/aerospace industry. The Hall of Fame also considers significant Texans who have achieved notoriety in other fields of endeavor that have been aviators at some point in their life.
2. Be a person of ability and character who has exhibited the qualities of patriotism, integrity, leadership, moral and/or physical courage and/or public service.
3. Be a person who has achieved notoriety for excellence in their field of endeavor. These may include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Military achievements and service.
 - b. Civilian, general aviation or commercial aviation development, operations or other aviation-related endeavors
 - c. Accomplishments in flight, including spaceflight.
 - d. Accomplishments in instruction, education or aviation promotion.
 - e. Accomplishments in aerospace engineering, design, invention, manufacturing or entrepreneurship.
 - f. Aviators whose accomplishments are in non-aviation fields.
4. The Hall of Fame also recognizes organizations, companies, military units or other groups founded in Texas or made up of a number of Texans who have made significant contributions to aviation and aerospace history.

REASON FOR NOMINATION

Please provide a detailed biography of the nominee that clearly states the nominee's connections to Texas and/or Texas aviation. Relevant information could include: schools attended, military service (ranks attained, units served with) if applicable, significant aviation or spaceflight achievements, awards and honors, aircraft types flown and logbook hours if available, etc. Supplementary materials such as photographs and newspaper or magazine articles written about the nominee are very helpful and can be uploaded with a nomination form.

Resumes/CV's can be included with the nomination form in place of a biography.
